7. New findings of the thesis:

Firstly, the thesis has developed the central concept of the topic: the leadership of the Hung Yen Provincial Party Committee in economic development is the entirety of the Provincial Party Committee's activities in formulating guidelines and resolutions on economic development; leading and directing subordinate party organizations and organizations within the political system, cadres, party members, and the people in implementing resolutions; and inspecting and supervising the implementation process in order to ensure the province's rapid and sustainable economic development associated with social progress and equity. At the same time, the thesis clarifies the contents and methods of leadership exercised by the Hung Yen Provincial Party Committee over the province's economic development.

Secondly, the thesis has established the theoretical framework of the topic, clearly identifying the contents and methods of leadership of the Hung Yen Provincial Party Committee in relation to the province's economic development.

Thirdly, the thesis has drawn several experiences regarding the leadership of the Hung Yen Provincial Party Committee in the economic development of the province.

Fourthly, the thesis proposes several new and feasible solutions aimed at strengthening the leadership of the Hung Yen Provincial Party Committee in the province's economic development in the coming years, especially the following three key solutions: 1) Renovating the formulation of Provincial Party Committee resolutions on economic development, ensuring a focus on the key issues in the province's economic development; 2) Focusing on directing the provincial government to institutionalize, concretize, and effectively implement the resolutions and guidelines of the Provincial Party Committee on economic development; 3) Renovating the leadership style of the Provincial Party Committee, especially its Standing Committee and Standing Board, in a focused and decisive manner, directly addressing "bottlenecks" as well as key and strategic economic projects and tasks of the province.
